Open living and dining room offers a cathedral ceiling, high windows and skylight, hardwood flooring and stone fireplace, with light-hued paneling on the walls.

Covered screened porch features its own stone fireplace, including an open deck to enjoy the forest views and mountain air.

Main level includes the master bedroom and one of the guest bedrooms. Each has their own private bath, and the master bedroom has an adjoining office.

Two additional guest rooms are on the second level, each with its own private bath.

Central heating and air, plus a gas furnace, offer comfort year-'round.

Double carport provides protection and convenience.
